Moodle help

Moodle is a Virtual Learning Environment (VLE) used by the University.

Moodle allows students to access course materials, enter into discussion with one another, do online tests and submit assignments. Staff can access Moodle to upload course content for students and download course assignments as well as partake in discussions and forums.

How do I access Moodle?
Moodle can be accessed using one of the following addresses, depending on where you are based:

Lancaster University: modules.lancaster.ac.uk
Lancaster University Ghana: ghana-modules.lancaster.ac.uk
Lancaster University College at Beijing Jiaotong University: modules.lucbjtu.ac.uk

Moodle online training and guides

Getting started
For staff: Online course: Introduction to Moodle
For students: Online course: Introduction to Moodle

Course administration
For staff involved in course administration: Online course: Course administration in Moodle

Assessment
Comprehensive information, guidance and case studies about this topic can be found on the Online submission, assessment and feedback help page.

Online courses are available for online assessment and feedback of assignments and for Moodle quizzes.

Online course: Online assessment and feedback for assignments in Moodle
Online course: Quizzes in Moodle

Video media
Please see Lancaster eStream help.

Mobile app
Please see Moodle Mobile.

Troubleshooting
Page: Unable to add an eStream video to a Moodle course
Page: Report a problem with Moodle
Data

A guide is available which covers using choice, feedback, questionnaire and database activities to collect data.

Collaborative activities

A guide is available which covers how to use the forum, chat, OU wiki and BigBlueButton activities in Moodle. A separate guide covers the Moodle glossary activity.