Get exam arrangements advice if you have a disability or dyslexia

We aim to ensure that you are not put at a disadvantage in your exams. Although we require formal evidence in order to provide alternative exam arrangements, we will look at your needs individually and make arrangements in consultation with you and your academic departments.

Arrangements can include extra time, use of a PC, arranging support of a reader or scribe, as well as enlarged text or braille exam papers.

The Disability Service can provide more information on the kinds of alternative exam arrangements you might be eligible for. Your department should also be able to give you advice, particularly in relation to in-course tests.

Please contact us for more information. Tel: 01524 592111, Email: disability@lancaster.ac.uk.

If you have a temporary injury and you need support in your exams you can contact the exams team in the Student Registry directly by emailing exams@lancaster.ac.uk.
